National Day for Truth and Reconciliation
September 30

September 30th is national day to commemorate the history and legacy of the residential school system, honour the resilience, dignity and strength of survivors and intergenerational survivors and remember the children who never came home. It's a chance to engage and educate people about B.C.'s colonial history and how it has impacted Indigenous communities.

At Diefenbaker, we will formally mark Orange Shirt Day on September 29, by wearing orange as a symbol of our commitment to Truth and Reconciliation.
